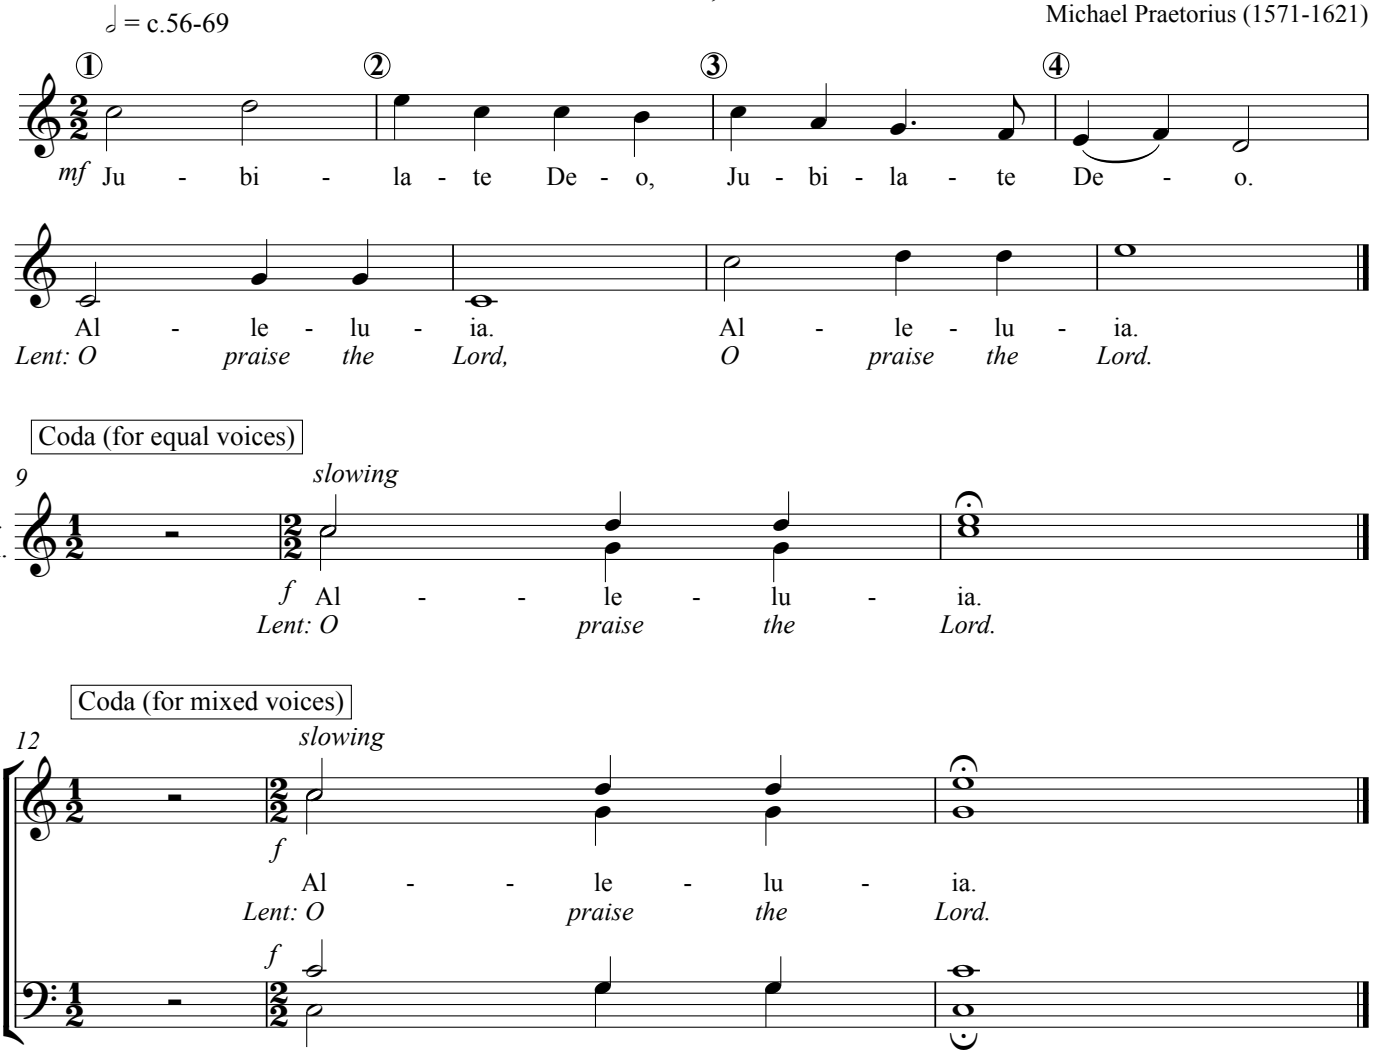
Jubilate Deo

Canon in 4 voices, with coda

Michael Praetorius (1571-1621)



Notes: This canon is first sung by the entire choir in unison, and is then sung canonically in 2, 3, or 4 voices, with each voice entering one bar apart, as indicated. After the final group has finished singing the canon proceed to the coda.

Options for the canonic entrances:
Two equal voices: (S, A)
Three equal voices: (S, S, A)
Three mixed voices: (S, A, T/B)
Four mixed voices: (T, A, B, S)

Translation: Sing joyfully to God, Alleluia.

Pronunciation: Yoo-bee-lah-teh Deh-oh (*Conductor's note - pure vowels, no dipthongs!)
