

AMERICAN FEDERATION PUERI CANTORES

ANNOUNCES THE

ORGAN SCHOLAR PROGRAM

The American Federation Pueri Cantores is proud to announce its national ORGAN SCHOLAR PROGRAM for high school students ages 15-18. Young organists are given an opportunity to collaborate with a respected professional and perform a pre-liturgy selection on a world class instrument.

AFPC also introduces its NATIONAL ORGAN SCHOLAR CONCERT. Organists selected to play in the regional festivals will be invited to New York to share in an evening concert at Holy Trinity Church on Friday, March 25, 2011.

Pueri Cantores is the international student choral organization of the Catholic Church that provides opportunities to sing great liturgical music to parish and school choirs, singers ages 9-18. AFPC organizes regional Festival and Mass celebrations, which this year are scheduled to be held in Oakland, CA; Pittsburgh, PA; Chicago, IL; Springfield, IL; Detroit, MI; Cincinnati, OH; Orlando, FL; Notre Dame, IN; New York, NY; and Washington DC. A small stipend is provided.
